“You can't discover new oceans unless you have the courage to lose sight of the shore.” - Andre Gide

Dear all

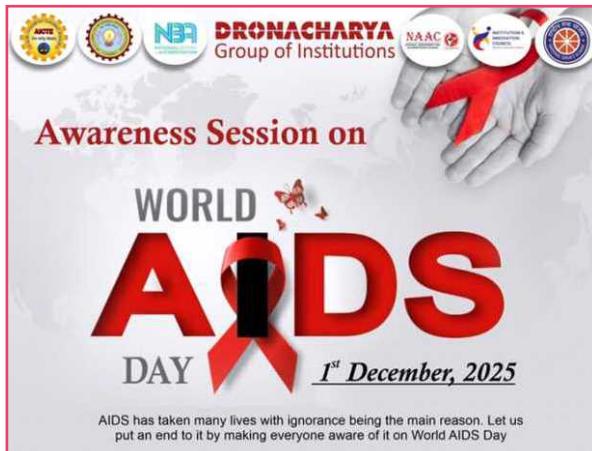

Greetings from the Editorial Desk!

“New month. New mindset. November is your chance to finish the year with power and purpose.”

December at Dronacharya Group of Institutions, Greater Noida was a vibrant blend of academic enrichment, social awareness, national pride, and future-ready learning. The institution organized a World AIDS Day Awareness Session, sensitizing students about health, prevention, and social responsibility, while National Pollution Control Day reinforced the importance of environmental sustainability and responsible citizenship. Marking World Computer Literacy Day, students were encouraged to enhance their digital competence, further strengthened through an expert session on the “Future of Cybersecurity with Blockchain,” offering valuable insights into emerging technologies and secure digital ecosystems. A hands-on “Virtual Labs” workshop provided experiential learning opportunities, bridging the gap between theory and practice. Observances such as Indian Navy Day 2025, Vijay Diwas 2025, and Human Rights Day 2025 instilled a deep sense of patriotism, constitutional values, and respect for human dignity. The celebration of National Energy Conservation Day highlighted the need for efficient energy use and sustainable development. Adding to the month's distinction, student participation in the Viksit Bharat Youth Parliament 2026 showcased leadership skills, democratic values, and a strong commitment to nation-building, making December a month of holistic growth, awareness, and excellence across the campus.
