Congratulations!

Your team is shortlisted for the regional round.

Dear Technovert,

Congratulations! Your team is being advanced to the regional round from North in Samsung Solve for Tomorrow 2024.

In this round, your team will be presenting online your idea that is solving problems in “Environment & Sustainability” and producing tangible innovations.

At this stage, we will support your team to be equipped with presentation & effective communication skills through expert online training.

It is mandatory to participate in the online trainings & regional rounds to qualify for the next round.

You will receive the schedule shortly.

All the best & keep solving!

Sincerely,

Team Solve
