Though the basic underpinnings of engineering education remain familiar, the environment and context within which engineers will need to practice reflects challenges and opportunities that are unique today.

He mentioned, an entrepreneur is someone that would never call himself an entrepreneur. He is someone that is happy to work, while all others are out partying. He is addicted to success and finally the entrepreneur knows one simple fact: "I will make it, maybe not immediately but absolutely and definitely". You have to hustle and think outside the box to make things happen when you are beaten down relentlessly.

He concluded by saying failure is simply learning. When it comes to success hard work always comes into play. There is no greater contentment in life than that of hard work paying off and knowing you are self-made.

One has to either do an internship or project and get an offer, OR, get in through Campus recruitment.

He also told students, they can grab govt. jobs in core companies by qualifying various competitive examinations.

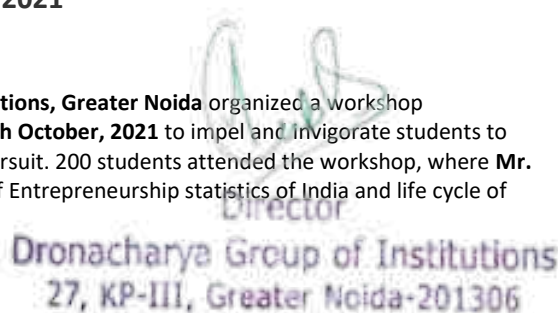

In the end, students cleared their doubts like work environment in core companies, future career growth in core companies and many more. It was very interactive session.

Last but not the least he mentioned, climate change is the most serious threat our planet is facing today. We must reduce carbon emissions and to fix it we could shift 85% of the world's energy supply to non-fossil fuel sources and invest in strategies like reforestation that capture carbon dioxide.

"DRY EYE"

Dronacharya Group of Institutions, Greater Noida in association with HEDUCATE SOLUTION (Denoting Health and Education) organized an online awareness session on "Dry Eye" under the banner of DGI NSS Wing on 15th July, 2020. The objective of the event was to raise awareness about Dry eye.

Dry eye is a condition where the eyes do not produce enough tears or of the needed quality. It not only affects the patient's vision, but also disturbs their quality of life, causing anxiety and even depression, often affecting their professional productivity. The session started with the welcome address of the Resource Person Dr. Prerna Matta, Glaucoma Specialist, Tirupathi Eye Centre by Dr. Jaswinder Kaur, Faculty of DGI GN.

Dr. Prerna Matta said that Dry eye syndrome is a chronic and typically progressive condition. Depending on its cause and severity, it may not be completely curable. But in most cases, dry eyes can be managed successfully, usually resulting in noticeably greater eye comfort, fewer dry eye symptoms, and sometimes sharper vision. Dry eye disease can have a number of causes, and a variety of treatment approaches are used.

Dr. Prerna Matta discussed that for mild cases of dry eyes caused by computer use, reading, schoolwork and other situational causes, the best dry eye treatment may simply be frequent use of artificial tears or other lubricating eye drops.

She recommended gently cleaning the eyelids before bedtime to kill bacteria that can cause blepharitis and meibomian gland problems, which can contribute to dry eye symptoms. For at least 20 seconds, apply a wet, moist washcloth to your closed lids. Then, using a gentle cleanser like diluted baby shampoo or pre-moistened eyelid wipes from the drugstore, gently wash your lids and lashes.

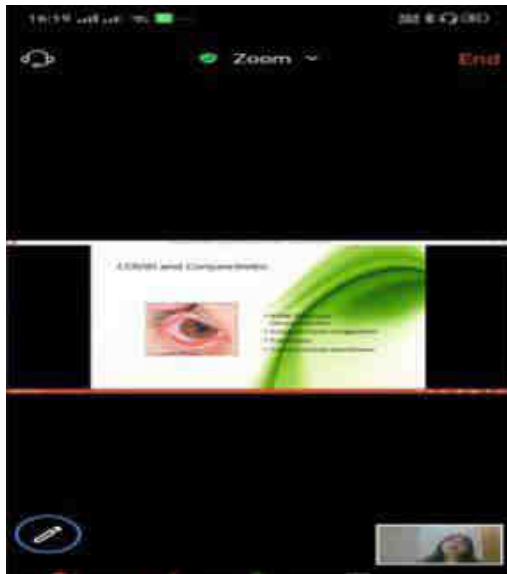

She laid emphasis on, when outdoors in daylight hours, always wear sunglasses that block 100% of the sun's UV rays. For the best protection, choose sunglasses that also feature a wrap-style frame to protect your eyes from wind, dust and other irritants that can cause or worsen dry eye symptoms.

Pro.f Vineet Mishra, Registrar, Prof. S.K. Srivastava, NSS Program Co-ordinator, all faculty members and students attended the online session.

Dr Prerna Matta concluded her session by solving the queries of the participants. The online session came to end with the Vote of thanks by Dr.S.K.Srivastava to Dr Prerna Matta , Mrs Sheila (Director) Heducate Solutions and her team members.

Support Maternal Health

11th July 2019

NSS Wing, Dronacharya Group of Institutions, Greater Noida organized a talk with a nearby village on “National Population Day Supporting Maternal Health” in order to eliminate unawareness regarding maternal health before and after pregnancy on 11th July, 2019. Eight students went to the village with a faculty head.

By taking the permission of Sarpanch, a meeting was held and villagers were asked to gather at chaupal.

One of the students initiated the talk by mentioning that maternal health remains a major public health problem in India and maternal mortality is considered a key health indicator of a country.

The major complications that account for nearly two-thirds of all maternal deaths are severe bleeding (mostly bleeding after childbirth), infections (usually after childbirth), high blood pressure during pregnancy (pre-eclampsia and eclampsia), complications from delivery and unsafe abortions.

Pregnancy-related complications are the number one cause of death among girls between 15 and 19 years of age. Because adolescent girls are still growing themselves, they are at greater risk of complications if they become pregnant. Moreover, child brides are less likely to receive proper medical care while pregnant or to deliver in a health facility, compared to women married as adults.

All women need access to antenatal care in pregnancy, skilled care during childbirth, and care and support in the weeks after childbirth. All births should be assisted by skilled health professionals, as timely management and treatment can make the difference between life and death for both the mother and the baby. Students told them that it's their right and they shouldn't shy about it at all.

Students told them about various missions launched by Govt in favour of maternal health which could be availed by village women such as:

- The Pradhan Mantri Surakshit Matritva Abhiyan (PMSMA): provides a fixed day for assured, comprehensive and quality antenatal care free of cost to pregnant women on 9th of every month.

Director
Dronacharya Group of Institutions
27, KP-III, Greater Noida-201306

- Janani Shishu Suraksha Karyakaram (JSSK): this scheme encompasses free maternity services for women and children.
- JananiSurakshaYojana (JSY): JananiSurakshaYojana (JSY): it is being implemented with the objective of reducing maternal and neonatal mortality by promoting institutional delivery among poor pregnant women.
- Janani Shishu Suraksha Karyakram(JSSK): the initiative stipulates free drugs, diagnostics, blood and diet, besides free transport from home to institution, between facilities in case of a referral and drop back home.
- Pradhan Mantri Surakshit Matritva Abhiyan (PMSMA): to ensure quality antenatal care and high risk pregnancy detection in pregnant women on 9th of every month.
- LaQshya: focused and targeted approach to strengthen key processes related to the labour rooms and maternity operation theatres which aims at improving quality of care around birth and ensuring Respectful Maternity Care.
- Midwifery - to provide access to quality maternal and neonatal health services, to promote natural birthing, to ensure respectful care and to reduce over medicalization.

They politely asked them to follow few things:

- Tackle child marriage
- Provide access to contraception and safe abortions
- Empower women

Moving towards the end of the talk students mentioned, to achieve the global goal of improving maternal health and to save women's lives we need to do more to reach those who are most at risk and made them understand that along with government, civilians had to take the responsibility.
