Ethics in Research

6. The basic responsibility of the Research and Development Cell is to ensure a competent review of all ethical aspects of the project proposals received and execute the same free from any bias and influence that could affect their objectivity. Academic integrity, in the broadest sense, refers to the set of professional ideals and ethical responsibilities that guide our research, writing, teaching, and collegial relation at the institution and in the community. Unfair means, plagiarism, fabricating or falsifying data, collaborating without authorization or misrepresenting one's contribution in group work, submitting false information in any form, or purposefully altering, impeding, or destroying another person's work are all examples of academic integrity infractions. These include intentionally and knowingly abetting academic dishonesty or research misconduct, as well as failing to report an occurrence. To maintain the academic integrity by student and faculty the institute has constituted ethics committee.

1. Ethics for Faculty and Student

7. Every Faculty and Student (Undergraduate/Postgraduate) of Dronacharya Group of Institutions needs to follow ethical practices as laid down by the Institute code of professional ethics. Faculties and students have to follow these ethics while writing any report/thesis/paper and should use the available resources of the institute.

2. Plagiarism

8. The Institute is strictly against Plagiarism and respects original and authentic findings. Plagiarism is commonly defined as taking someone else's idea with or without their permission and claiming it as your own either intentionally or unintentionally or sometimes may be carelessly. This includes all published or unpublished material in any form i.e. printed or handwritten. This applies to the material in electronic form too. Copying data from a source without proper acknowledgement to the source also is a form of plagiarism. Every faculty and student must avoid Plagiarism. Hence, first the knowledge of what Plagiarism actually means and how it can be avoided should be clearly known by them. For this they are guided and may take the help of University of Oxford's is available. The avoidance of plagiarism is one of the most important responsibilities of faculty members and students. They have a collective responsibilities to understand precisely what plagiarism is, and how they can avoid it.

3. Turnitin

The Institute uses Turnitin to detect plagiarism of the works submitted by the faculty members and students. The resource if copied would be easily detected by the Turnitin service which can even find closely related or similar content copied from various books, journals, magazines, newspapers, available on internet and those which are copyrighted.

4. Unethical Practices

The Institute is against any unethical practices by the faculty and students. The include dishonesty, wrong intentions and any malpractices during examination, assessment and other unethical participation in different activities and event. The unfair means during the examinations is dealt by guidelines/rules provided by the affiliating University. Institute has right to take action against the reported cases of plagiarism. The college encourages and praises original works and also helps those facing difficulties in submission of their works.

5. Composition of Ethics Committee

1	Director	Chairperson
2	AQAC Coordinator/Head	Convener
3	All Academics Head of the Department	Member
4	One Senior Professor (Special Invitee)	Member

The Role and Responsibility of Committee:

- The Committee takes reported case of unethical practices against any students/ faculty.
- Every case is reviewed by the committee as per procedure/guidelines/rule prescribed by the competent authority in this regard (Affiliating University/AICTE/UGC)
- Depending upon the severity of case the committee suggest the suitable action as deem fit as per the guidelines. The general action against such cases are as.

Subject: Regarding CSI Membership

Dear Heads of Departments,

I hope this message finds you well.

This is to inform you that all eligible faculty members are encouraged to apply for the CSI (Computer Society of India) membership for the current academic year. The institution recognizes the importance of such professional memberships and will provide reimbursement for the membership fee, as per our policy.

Kindly ensure the following:

1. Share this information with the faculty members in your department.
2. Instruct the interested faculty to submit proof of membership (invoice/receipt) to the Accounts Department.
3. Reimbursement will be processed only upon submission of the necessary documents and approval from the respective HOD.

Please treat this as a priority and ensure timely communication within your departments. Should you require any clarification, feel free to get in touch with my office.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Regards,

Subject: Regarding CSI Membership

Dear Heads of Departments,

This is to inform you that faculty members who are eligible are encouraged to apply for the CSI (Computer Society of India) membership for the current academic year. The institution acknowledges the value of such professional affiliations and, in accordance with policy, will reimburse the membership fee.

Please take note of the following actions:

1. Circulate this information among the faculty in your department.
2. Advise interested faculty members to submit valid proof of membership (invoice/receipt) to the Accounts Department.
3. Reimbursement will be processed only after the required documents are submitted and approved by the respective HOD.

We request you to prioritize this matter and ensure prompt communication with your department members. Should you need any further details or clarification, please feel free to reach out to my office.

Thank you for your support and cooperation.
